Hibernians Elect Officers. There was a gala time at Lee Camp Hail last Wednesday night, when Division. No. 1. Ancient Order of Hibernians, convened in regular pession. The membership of the order had been notified that the special business of importance that would engage their attention was the annual election of officers for the ensuing year, and that fact in fiself caused the large hall to be well filled with natives and descendants from the Emerald Isle. All the offices were contested for, and the result was as follows: President: John F. Donleavy; Vice-President, James L. Smith; Financial Secretary, James E. Grady: Treasurer, Michael Carmody: Serveant-at-Arms, P. J. McCarthy; Marshal, Felix Keegan; Sentinel, M. J. Jeiton. Standing Committee-Pat McDonough, James J. Burke, and James McDonough, James J. Burke, and James McDonough, James J. E. McDonough, James E. Grady, and M. Carmody were elected by acclaration for the offices of financial and recording secretaries, and treasurer, respectively.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Myers Celebrate Their 25th Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Myers celebrated their silver wedding last evening, and their hospitable home, No. 407 north Eighth street, was thronged with their many friends, who called to tender their congratulations.

The house, which is well adapted for an artistic and effective treatment from the hands of the florist, was beautiful with the combination of tall palms, vases of cut-flowers, portieres of smilax, and the glow of numberless pink-shaded lamps and candelabra. The dining-room, with the same motive of color and floral effect, carried out, together with the table beautifully arranged with cut-flowers, sparkling silver and centrepiece of maidenhair ferns and pink carnations, was also most attractive, and in it a most sumptuous collation was served. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Myers were their three daughters, Miss Jeane Myers, white point de sprit over white silk; Miss Ogarita Myers, white organdle over white silk, and Miss Mary Myers, white organdle. Mrs. Myers was attired in an exquisite silk gown trimmed in the lace worn on her wedding gown twenty-five years ago.

About 150 guests called during the eveabout to goests caned during the ver-ning, and after supper the pariors were cleared for dancing, and for several hours the young people worshipped at the shrine of Terpsichore.
